

2018 Clean Water Farm Award: Cloverfield Enterprises operated by James Hundley and his sons Jay & Robert Hundley in the Rappahannock Watershed in King George County

Sold 764 seedlings of 7 species of native plants

TRI-COUNTY/CITY SOIL & WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT

Proud to be your local partner in conservation since 1944!

FY 2019 KEY FACTS

Provided almost $250,000 in cost-share funds for on-the-ground agricultural conservation best management practices

Provided free technical assistance to 50 area citizens including 25 site visits dealing with stormwater runoff, flooding, and erosion

167 acres of cropland converted to hayland 7,467 acres of erosion-reducing cover crops
2,438 acres of Nutrient Management Plans

Engaged
1,933 middle schoolers & 2,281 elementary schoolers in outdoor & indoor environmental education

TRI-COUNTY/CITY SOIL & WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT

servicing Fredericksburg, King George, Spotsylvania, and Stafford

FY 2019 Board of Directors

Jeff Adams	Stafford
Mike Anderson	Stafford
Steve Cameli	Fredericksburg
Giannina D. Frantz	Fredericksburg
Janet Gayle Harris	King George
Jan Massey	Spotsylvania
Wayne Miller	Spotsylvania
Bob Wernsman	King George
Mike Broaddus	Appointed, Virginia Cooperative Extension
Richard Street	Appointed, At-Large
John Howe	Associate Director – Stafford
Ray Simms	Associate Director – Spotsylvania

4811 Carr Drive
Fredericksburg, VA 22408
540-656-2401 tricountycity@tccswcd.org tccswcd.org

District Staff

Marta Perry	District Manager
Etta Lucas	Conservation Specialist
Mariya Hudick	Education Coordinator
Jen Benson	Administrative Professional

